

Tax Accounting and Super Centre

Finance & Mortgage Lending

Neil Fraser

“Our first step is getting to know you and your goals; we listen to what you need and work with you to find the best way to achieve it. Because doing things properly means things only need to be done once.”

Neil Fraser, Finance Broker & Trusted Advisor of Tax, Accounting and Super Centre grew up in regional Queensland. Not only does he understand the local environment but the local issues too. Having lived interstate for several years, he's now loving being back, calling Queensland home again and he enjoys talking to his clients on both a professional and personal level. After all, he's just another one of the locals.

January 2020 marked the start of Neil's 45th year in the finance industry, including 28 years of banking with NAB and 16 years as a finance broker and trusted adviser. He has built up a myriad of skills to assist with all facets of finance, including residential, business/commercial, equipment & car finance and personal loans requirements. He's been serving Tax, Accounting and Super Centre since July 2015 and Neil's all about providing a 360-degree service for his clients. These skills allow him to serve a variety of happy clients.

Neil's #1 mission is to help clients meet their life goals (& assist when the going gets tough). Tax, Accounting and Super Centre has the added resources of Accounting and Financial Planning experts under the same roof, to provide much-needed expert advice to our clients in assisting them to achieve their goals, and dreams.

Neil, along with the team at Tax, Accounting Super Centre, believe listening and understanding his clients is a paramount step in providing exceptional service. So get in touch, say g'day and start working with Neil towards your own life goals today!
